

ELISE'S VISION

I am writing a true story, which is a testimony of how the Lord loves us, His children, and those who have not yet handed over their lives to Him. Our dear second-born daughter, Elise, experienced a "miracle" that doesn't happen to many people in this life. Fourteen months ago, Elise's sister, Kyra, died here on this earth; but in fact she is not dead, she is alive in Heaven - a wonderful, happy place! Now, Elise is fully reassured that Kyra is in the most beautiful place, in a country without sun, but where the light of God shines.

With the help of the Lord, I will try to put into words exactly what Elise (at age four) shared with me. I would like to mention that she shared all of this in small parts. She saw too many things at once. Maybe it was better that she didn't tell us everything right away, so we could appreciate it even more, and every time we could experience the "miracle" over and over again of what our Heavenly Father did for her.

On June 4, 2015 around noon, Elise sat at the table watching as I prepared lunch. Then she said:

- Mommy! Last night when I was lying in my bed, I saw a great light. At first faintly, then it became brighter. It was Kyra. She was talking to me!

Of course I was shocked. Did she really see Kyra? Or was she just dreaming? Could she really talk to her?

- How did you know it was Kyra?
- At first, I only saw the light on the ceiling above my bed, and was very scared, but then I heard her voice, she said 'don't be afraid! I am Kyra!' It is interesting that I did not even ask God to see Kyra, yet I could see her and hear her voice.
- How did she look?
- She was so beautiful! She had a long, white, illuminating dress and was as tall as you are. She had long hair that reached down to her knees. There were flowers in her hair, and on her head was a crown which was also illuminated. I didn't see her legs, because her dress was too long. She was shining, even her eyes and her entire body. Her body was not like ours - it was brightly shining. She had wings, just like a butterfly, they were dark blue. (Interesting, that Kyra's favorite color had been dark blue, since her operation.) She told me that she loves me and that Heaven is a very nice place. We talked so much that I cannot even tell you all of it! She asked why Brielle (our third daughter) sleeps with you, and not in her own bed. I told her it's because we have a guest, who went hiking tonight. I sleep on Brielle's bed, and our guest sleeps in my bed. (God knew that this night Elise would be alone in her room.) She also asked if I was two years old, but I told her that now I'm four. She also asked about Brielle, and I told her that she can already walk.

It is interesting that we know from the Bible that there will no longer be time in Heaven. Perhaps that's why Kyra did not know how much time has passed since her death?

- Did she ask about us?
- Yes. I told her that Daddy's back hurts, and she said that she'll pray for him. Meanwhile, I had to go to the bathroom and wanted to wake you up, but Kyra said that she will be with me. She was shining so brightly that we didn't even have to turn on the lights.

Here I want to mention another reason why Brielle didn't sleep in her bed. She had whooping cough, which was very stressful for all of us, because she woke up every half an hour, coughing so badly, that she had to be picked up so she wouldn't choke. This meant that I was very exhausted from not sleeping. That night, I heard Elise run out of her room into the living room, and I saw a light, but being half asleep, it didn't seem out of the ordinary. I thought she turned on the lights. But, this was not the light of a lamp, but was Kyra shining. Honestly, I was glad that I didn't have to get up to help Elise because I was so tired. It was also strange that our room's door was only slightly open, as it's always completely open, so we can hear if the kids get up in the other room.

- Elise, I'm really sad that you didn't wake me up.
- I didn't wake you up because Kyra said she didn't want to disturb you. She was with me and walked me back to my room. She was so bright that when she took my hand, my hand began to glow as well! But, before we went back to my room, Kyra opened the door and looked around outside in the backyard. The backyard was quite clear and bright even though it was at night. Angels were around our house they were all glowing! Then, we went inside and Kyra looked around; she struck a chord on the harp. We talked a lot; she asked a lot of questions. Then we went back to my room and Kyra showed me what a beautiful place Heaven is. She said she feels very well there.
- Elise, how did she show you Heaven?
- I saw a very long staircase, and I had to walk up on it. Kyra flew next to me. When I reached the top of the stairs, there was God and the Lord Jesus, and next to them was Kyra. God was very great, and beside him sat the Lord Jesus.

Is it possible that she saw the throne and God sat on it? We asked which side was the Lord Jesus on, and she clearly showed that He sat on the right side of God!

- The Lord Jesus had illuminated clothes like Kyra. I saw God and Jesus, but their faces were not visible. Cynthia came over to say hello and she told me that she loves me. But it was not the Cynthia who lives in Colorado, but your sister.

I have a cousin, Cynthia, who lives in Colorado, and Elise knows her. But she spoke about my sister, who died at the age of six, more than twenty years ago. We have sometimes talked about her, but Elise could not have known her on this earth.

- What did Cynthia look like?
- Mommy, I'll draw it for you.

She drew a picture of Cynthia and Kyra. She never drew people before, but now confidently and quickly, she drew a picture of them both. First, she drew their heads and a crown on top of their heads, and from there continued with their long hair.

- Mommy, I have seen many things in Heaven. I saw a great big tree that was shining. This tree was so large that it almost touched the sky, although there was no sky. I saw even smaller trees and beautiful flowers in the garden. I saw a beautiful, great river, and its water was very clean. It was so clean; I don't know how they cleaned it! I saw a huge wall with a door which was very high and bright, and the angels walked in and out of it and Kyra as well. I tried to open it, because I wanted to go in, but it was locked! I asked the Lord Jesus, why I cannot open it, and He explained that 'only people who have already died on this earth can go in, who have been given a new body - a body that shines, such as Kyra's. Only people that love and follow Me and die in Me are eligible for such a body. They only die in their earthly bodies, but, they continue to live with Me here in Heaven.' Imagine Mommy, the Lord Jesus showed me a tiny baby, a very tiny baby, who had just died (perhaps in the mother's belly, because she said it was a tiny little baby who was not born yet) and He took the baby to Heaven. It was able to enter in the door. The Lord Jesus said that He wants me to enter also, but I must still wait. Mommy, God had put me in front of a mirror and His light shone on me and I was also illuminating. It was so wonderful, my whole body was shining. I have seen angels, and many, many people who have been given a new heavenly body, such as Kyra's. They all had an illuminated body like her, but each had different colored wings. There, I met with the boy, who drowned in the pool, you know, whose body is in the same cemetery where Kyra's body is. (she spoke of our friends, Frank and Dawn Farkas's son, Ryan.) I've seen many animals, lions, giraffes and many other kinds of animals. There, you can pet the lions, and they won't hurt you. God said that when He created the animals, they didn't hurt anyone, and in Heaven, they will not hurt anyone either.

We know from the Bible that there, the lion and the lamb will graze together, and none of the animals will hurt anyone. It was the same at creation, but, as a consequence of the fall of man, the animals changed too.

- Kyra also told me that there they are never hungry; they eat only when God is calling them to supper. They are never hungry and never get tired, even if they walk much. They also fly a lot. Mommy, Kyra told me that there are a lot of harps and they praise God always. They also sing beautifully. I've seen it, as they were praising God. It was like a choir, but there, only God and the Lord Jesus sat, while everyone else sang and praised Him. It was such a nice place that I cannot even describe it to you. Kyra repeatedly went through the door, which I could not, but then she came back to me. Mommy, Kyra flew, but she said she is able to walk there; they don't use their wings all the time. It was so interesting; I saw Kyra run with her hands up in the air, while she was laughing. I don't know how she could run while laughing. Kyra also told me how she went to Heaven. She said that when her body died here on earth, she had to fly a lot, but, she was not afraid because God was there with her, and led her in to Heaven. At once, she was able to see with both of her eyes (she was blind in her right eye here on earth due to cancer!). She has a beautiful, illuminated body, and since then, nothing hurts. She is no longer crying and she is doing really well. I asked Kyra if she prays for us and she said yes, but they mostly pray for those who still live in sin and have not repented yet, because they want many more people to come to Heaven. While we talked, Kyra said she had to leave because God calls her to supper, but I could not go there, I had to say farewell to her. I was very sad; I didn't want to leave. I wanted to talk to her for a long time. I stepped up on the stairs, I gave her a kiss and a hug, and I started to cry. She didn't cry, but comforted me. See told me to 'be good and obey Mommy and Daddy. When you grow up, you need to repent to God, because that's the only one way to get here to Heaven! I would like to meet with you again and be together forever here!' Kyra also asked me to write down all that has happened to always remember them.

She told all this to me with tear-filled eyes. It was so hard for her to leave this beautiful place and Kyra. She told me that she always wants to be good, since she wants to get to Heaven one day and be happy forever praising God. It is interesting that she actually wept that night. We brought her to our room, but did not understand why she was crying. This only came to light the next day at noon.

Only God is able to do such wonders in His power and glory, to have our four year old girl share with us all that I wrote. The Lord has His purposes with everything in our lives. The greatest comfort for us is that Kyra is there, waiting for us in eternal glory! We are grateful to the Lord for all of it!
